ORDER FROM GOV. TOD. TO THE CLEVELAND PRESS :-

To the Several Commissioners superintending the draft:—You will send your drafted mes to the camp of rendervous, by the nearest railroad conveyance. Notaries Public, Justices of the Pence, and Constables, are not to be considered county officers. Drafted rose who can furnish a good olanket, are advised to do so, as they will thereby save the purchase of one from Government. Substitutes may be furnished, any time before mustering.

Governor. FROM KENTUCKY. The Southern line is working to Franklin, Kentucky.
Clarke county advices say Jack Bruner with a company of reballs went up Red River to cap are Jim Townsend's Home Guards. The rebels were defeated with great stangater.
General G. W. Morgan left but four guns at Cumberland Gap, and those with truncheous mocked off.

General G. W. Morgan left but four guns at Cumberland Gap, and those with truncheone inocked off.

Colonel S. D. Bruce, son-in-law of General Lesiie Coumber, receives the highest commendation in military circles here for his operations at Bowling Green. The rebels burged the bridge near Auburn on Monday night. Bruce immediately sent thither the Poth Indiana and part of the 8th Estimately, rebuilt the bridge, routed the enemy at Russellville, killing and wounding fifty and taking 1s prisoners, 4th horses and saddless. He also routed a party at Glasgow yestersky, taking ten prisoners, including Lieutenant Colonel Crews. Captain Brown and Lieutenant Thomas.

A Perismouth, Ohio, dispatch to Gov. Rebinson says John Morgan, with 1000 men yesterday stacked the Carter County home-guard near Olive Hill. After several hours severa shirmashing Morgan was repulsed, and twenty of his men were killed. Morgan then retreated towards Locking river, buttung thirty-five houses on his way. Last night Morgan returned to Olive Hill. Meanwhile Col. Lepert went to Portsmouth, and brought 600 of the Urth Ohio.

Advices from Bardstown says the rebels have from 30,000 to 3,000 men in a circle of eight miles in diameter around Bardstown. Our control indvadoe was this afternoon four miles this side of Bardstown. They have been skirming and driving the rebels before them for the petitire days. We explained three hundred prisoners.

maton: that Buell resigned becauses or has precisamston, but constined to hold his position six days longer, in the hope that Lincoln would amul that document.

The rebels are rigidly enforcing the Confederato-conscription act wherever they have temporary control.

The Louisville special dispatch of the 23, concerning the taking of 500 rebels by Roussean's Driston, was incorrect. It doubtless was based on the fact that an entire feorgia regiment of cavalry, 300 strong, was captured in the serly part of last week by Lieut. Col. Stewart, of the first linding easalry commanding his own and the 2d and 3d Kentucky, which surrounded and completely surprised the rebels at Prankfort, who surroundered without the slightest resistance. Col. Crawford, commanding the captored regiment, is an ex-Congressman, and one of the Confederate Pouse Commissioners to Washington.

These prisoners reached here, last starting
